

We are now into the division competitions and the later start time of 8pm for the seniors appears to be working well. The following is the schedule for the remainder of the season:

SENIORS

6 Aug: Competitions end      13 Aug: Night off (stay warm)
20 Aug: Closed Singles      27 Aug: Lee Cup and break up

SCHOOLS

Will recommence on 23 July at 6.30pm for 4 weeks. There will be one week of competition followed by Doubles pool play on 30 July and Singles pool play on 6 August. The finals of the doubles and singles events will be held on 13 August followed by a break up and presentations to the winning players/teams.

BATS AND TABLES Just a reminder to be careful of the tables. They are easily marked and expensive to repair. Please also refrain from hitting the tables with the bats and peeling off the bat rubber.

TOURNAMENTS DATES TO KEEP AN EYE OUT FOR

16 July      Aoraki Secondary Schools Tournament
28 - 30 Aug      NZ Secondary Schools in Christchurch

26 Sep - 6 Oct      NZ Open in Cambridge

Former South Canterbury and Waihi School player, Jack Chaney, collected 5 titles at the South Canterbury Open (Open Men's Singles, Open Men's Doubles, Under 21 and Under 18 Singles and the Under 18 Doubles)

SOUTH ISLAND TEAMS

Well done to those players who took part in this tournament in Christchurch over Queen's Birthday weekend (Gary Flynn, Michael Fox, Louise Sandri, Rachel Flynn, Riaz Howey, Sean McDonald, Max Carter). It always provides tough competition.

South Canterbury Open – this was held on 30 June. It was a disappointing turnout from the local players but congratulations to John Fox for winning the Over 70's. A big thank you to Tracey and Roger for running the tournament and for the canteen helpers; Lynette and Janet

DID U KNOW?

Coca-Cola would be green if it didn't have colouring added to it

REMINDER: SUBS ARE NOW DUE. FOR THE SCHOOLS THESE HAVE BEEN INCLUDED AS PART OF THE TEAM ENTRY FORM. FOR THOSE THAT HAVE NOT PAID AN ACCOUNT WILL BE SENT TO YOUR SCHOOL. FOR OTHER PLAYERS PLEASE PAY AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. SENIORS $25 AND JUNIORS $20
